

Welcome to Unipro Technologies website. Unipro Technologies respects the privacy of everyone who visits this website and is committed to maintaining the privacy and security of the personal information of all its visitors. Its policy on the collection and use of personal information and other information is outlined below.

Personal information

1. We at Unipro Technologies do not require personal information to gain access to most of our website pages.

2. We collect personal information from our visitors on a voluntary basis. Personal information may include name, title, company, address, phone number, email address, and other relevant data. Questions or comments submitted by visitors come under personal information.

3. We collect and use personal information for business purposes:

- That you may download product information, order products and take advantage of certain other features of our website.
- To provide information or interactive services through this website, to your e-mail address or, where you wish it to be sent by post, to your name and postal addresses.
- To seek your feedback on our products and services or to contact you in relation to those services offered on our website.
- To process orders or applications submitted by you.
- To administer or otherwise carry out our obligations in relation to any agreement you have with us.
- To anticipate and resolve problems with any goods or services
- To create products or services that may meet your needs
- To process your requests, improve our operations, and communicate about our products, services and businesses.
- To allow you to subscribe to our news letter

4. We will not use or share, either within Unipro Technologies or with a third party, any information collected from this page for direct marketing purposes. However, we may transmit the information to another country, among Unipro Technologies and its affiliates, for purposes such as storage and for carrying out the processing detailed above.

5. To the extent required or permitted by law, we may also collect, use and disclose personal information in connection with security related or law enforcement investigations or in the course of cooperating with authorities or complying with legal requirements.

6. We may also remove all the personally identifiable information and use the rest for historical, statistical or scientific purposes.

7. If you e-mail us, you are voluntarily releasing information to us. Your e-mail address will be used by Unipro Technologies to respond to you. We will not use the information that can identify you, such as your e-mail address, for mass mailing purposes.

8. In addition, we may have collected similar information from you in the past. By entering this website you are consenting to the terms of our information privacy policy and to our continued use of previously collected information. By submitting your personal information to us, you will be treated as having given your permission for the processing of your personal data as set out in this policy.

Non personal information

1. At this website, information sent by your web browser, may be automatically collected. This information typically includes your domain name (the site after the @ in your e-mail address). It may also contain your user name (the name before the @ in your e-mail address). Other examples of information collected by our server include the Internet protocol (IP) address used to connect the visitor's computer to the Internet, operating system and platform, the average time spent on our website, pages viewed, information searched for, access times, websites visited before and a visitor visits our website, and other relevant statistics. The amount of information sent depends on the settings you have on your web browser; please refer to your browser if you want to learn what information it sends.

2. All such information will be used only to assist us in providing an effective service on this website. We may from time to time supply the owners or operators of third party websites from which it is possible to link to our website with information relating to the number of users linking to our website from such third party website. You cannot be identified from this information.

3. We use the information we automatically receive from your web browser to see the pages you visited inside our website, which website you visited before coming to ours, and where you go after you leave. We at Unipro Technologies can then develop statistics that are helpful to understanding how our visitors use this website. We use this information in the aggregate to measure the use of our website and to administer and improve our website. This statistical data is interpreted by Unipro Technologies in its continuing effort to present the website content that visitors are seeking in a format they find most helpful.

Information placed on your computer

We may store some information such as cookies on your computer when you look at our website. Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to the hard drive of a visitor's computer for record-keeping purposes. This information facilitates your use of our website and ensures that you do not need to re-enter your details every time you visit it. You can erase or choose to block this information from your computer if you want to; please refer to your browser settings to do so. Erasing or blocking such information may limit the range of features available to the visitor on our website. We also use such information to provide visitors a personalised experience on our website. We may use such information to allow visitors to use the website without logging on upon returning, to auto-populate email forms, to make improvements and to better tailor our website to our visitors' needs. We also use this information to verify that visitors meet the criteria required to process their requests.

Security

We have implemented technology and policies, with the objective of protecting your privacy from unauthorized access and improper use, and periodically review the same.
